Living English

- Living text book: Tailor it to your needs
- Updated live on the Web

english-to-go.com's Online Course Book, Living English uses the natural and authentic English of today, plus the power of the Internet, to deliver a 'living text book' that changes and adapts to changing student, teacher and institutional needs and requirements, as well as to the changing world in which Living English needs to be used.

The Living English Revolution

With all the power of english-to-go.com's ever-growing and extensive database of resources, and the focus of the Living English courses, Living English will revolutionize the use of course books and text books in universities and schools around the world.

For Teachers

We recommend new teachers go through the resources as listed, and teach the course like a regular textbook. However, Living English enables you to adapt to the needs of your students by reviewing each resource and choosing the ones you wish to print.

You can:

- look at the alternative resources already listed.
- check to see if any resources have been updated since you last taught the course.
- search the database for other resources on grammar points or topics best suited to your class.

Using Living English in this way utilizes the power and flexibility of english-to-go.com's online course book. With inbuilt choices, changes, updates and new resources added, Living English grows and evolves with the changing world.

Institutions can also tailor Living English to their needs; using alternative lessons from the english-to-go.com database. Living English is a flexible, 'living textbook'.

Instant Workbooks: An integrated part of Living English are Instant Workbooks: interactive online exercises, reinforcing work done in class. These can be done as a class, or individually at school, or at home as homework.

SelfAccess.com: The complete library of interactive online resources are available on english-to-go.com's sister site, <http://www.SelfAccess.com>, and can be added to Living English either at an individual student level, or through an institution's computer room.

How To Use

Resources and activities have been sequenced and structured into a 12 Unit text book, stored online, with printable resources and online Instant Workbooks. Simply print resources for your students, and give them passwords for different Instant Workbooks. Teachers' Notes and Answers are integrated within the resources. The teacher controls which parts of the Course get distributed at which stage.

Each Unit should be taught over a teaching week. Leave out specific recommended resources or activities, or replace or supplement them with other English-To-Go.com resources by searching the library for alternative resources.

english-to-go.com's Online Course Books 'Living English', are changed, added to and updated through the year.

Beyond Individual Subscriptions - Institutions

An institution is able to buy Living English for one class at one level for US$349 for 12 months. For example, with class sizes of 20 students, and four different Upper-Intermediate 12-week classes over the year, that's less than US$5 per student. Pricing schemes available - cost is calculated by number of students, length of subscription, and inclusion of SelfAccess.com resources.
